

University of South Alabama
Assistant Professor

University of South Alabama Visual Arts Department invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in the area of Glass. Starting date is August 15, 2010.

Responsibilities: Teach undergraduate basic and advanced courses in glass and three-dimensional foundations; develop, oversee, and maintain glass facility and program; scholarly research and/or professional creative activity; academic advising; participation in departmental and university governance; professional development, and public service.

Required credentials: Earned M.F.A., demonstrated expertise in glass blowing, and fluency in written and spoken English.

Application Materials Required: Letter of interest, vita, official transcripts, statement of teaching philosophy, 20 images of recent work (slides or digital images in jpeg format on cd/dvd) and 20 images of students work if available (jpeg format on CD/DVD), and three original letters of recommendation sent directly by the respective referees.

Application materials should be sent to: Search Committee Chair, Department of Visual Arts, VAB 172, Mobile, AL 36688. Review of applications will begin December 15, 2009 and continue until the position is filled.

The University of South Alabama is an Equal Opportunity/Equal Access Employer.