

ED BUNNELL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

PART I: PERSONAL DATA

Name:

Student ID:

Address:

Phone: Day:

Evening:

Email:

Term that you enrolled in AIS:

Number of hours completed USA:

USA cumulative grade point average:

Number of family members living at home:

Number in college:

Family adjusted gross income

below	-$10,000
$10,000-$14,999
$15,000-$19,999
$20,000-$24,999
$25,000-$29,999
$30,000-$34,999
$35,000-$39,999
$40,000-$44,499
$40,000-$49,999
above	-$50,000

Please list any financial aid (grants, loans, scholarships, tuition reimbursements, etc.) you are presently receiving?

Do you wish to have this application considered for subsequent terms? Yes No

PART II: PERSONAL ESSAY

Please attach a short essay in which you describe your efforts to achieve a college education despite obstacles you have encountered and explain the reasons for your persistence. (Essay should be a typed, double-spaced and no more than 2 page.)

ED BUNNELL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION
PART III: FACULTY RECOMMENDATION*

has applied for a scholarship from the Department of Interdisciplinary Studies. The scholarship is based on evidence of the applicant's academic achievement and promise, persistence and dedication, and financial need. The student is providing a short financial statement and an essay describing his/her persistence in achieving a degree and is asking you to attest to his/her academic achievement and promise in the space provided. Please return your recommendation to Karen Goodwin, Academic Advisor, IST, 214 AHE. If you have questions about the scholarship or procedures, call Karen at 460-6263. Thank you.

RECOMMENDATION:

*It is the applicant's responsibility to give this form to a faculty member and to check to see that it has been submitted to the Department of Interdisciplinary Studies before the deadline:

Spring - 1st Friday in April

Fall - 1st Friday in November