BET.com keeps me up to date on the things happening to the black community. It also keeps me up to date on latest music coming out. Eadie N

I also look at different articles that deals with problems African Americans are facing everyday and how to prevent such things. Darnesha L

CARS & TRUCKS & SUVs

www.autoweb.com

The Autoweb website at <http://www.autoweb.com> is the perfect website for someone who is looking to buy or sell a car. I am currently in the process of looking for a new car, and I visit this website often. It gives you a chance to find just the car you are looking for at a price that is right for your budget. One of the many great features of the website is that you can choose a distance in which they will look for your car. This is very helpful because it allows me to see cars that are a hundred or more miles away without having to leave my house. You can also research cars that you are interested in buying to see how well they match up to other cars. The Autoweb website gives you more options when you are looking to buy a car. Leslie K

www.bmw.com BMW

Some day I would like to buy a nice used BMW. For now however I do enjoy looking at all the new designs of the BMW cars, so this is why I like this web site. The designs seem to get much sleeker as years go by. Another reason why I like this site is because it gives me the ability to recognize BMW cars by there name like the BMW X5 and Z8. Mikael S

www.chevrolet.com Chevy Corvette

www.kbb.com Kelly Blue Book Online

This is a really good website for prospective car buyers and sellers. I like this website because it allows me to be informed on the changing value of my car and the costs of other cars. It was particularly useful to me in making the decision to buy my last automobile. I was able to compare the price that the car dealership quoted me with the price on this website and this allowed me to be an informed consumer. This website is a great asset to consumers. Matthew H

COMPUTERS & APPLICATIONS

www.aimtoday.com

This is the website that pops up with AOL Instant Messenger. It has the latest headlines on it, and fun things to do, like Rate-a-Buddy. Cori M

www.aol.com

This is a great source for my instant messenger. It allows me to keep in touch with my family and friends. I also use it to conduct searches. Mindy

AOL keyword: Beta

(This web site isn't really a favorite, but it is one that I visited almost everyday until the GM release of AOL 8.0.)

A few months ago, I participated in the testing of AOL's new 8.0. I wasn't so much interested in trying to find "bugs" in the system as I was getting a sneak peak at the upcoming software. More importantly, this was going to be the factor that decided whether or not I am going to continue to pay 23.90 for an IP that offers nothing but quick links and pretty colors. I'm looking elsewhere. Serena B

www.bellsouth.net

This is another website I use a lot. If you are looking for a good internet connection this would be a good and affordable one. Miriam J

Sorry about the name, but this website is great. You can find out anything you need or want to know about computers. Erin R

<http://www.pricewatch.com/>

This sight is like a search engine for buying computer hardware. I like pricewatch because it organizes all computer hardware prices in order from least expensive to most expensive. This is where I order computer hardware from. With computer hardware having a large markup it is good to find a sight with competitive prices. Jonathan F

EMAIL

<http://www.aol.com>

I like to go to this website when I need to check my mail. I use this website when I cannot sign onto my actual AOL. It has become quite useful, especially now that my sister and I are five hours apart at different schools and cannot be online at the same time. Melissa L.

With yahoo, I have been able to keep in contact with friends who have gone to college all over the United States. Rex C

GAMES

<http://aol16.pogo.com/game/arcade/flow> Overflow

everyone needs a break from studying sooner or later, so I go to this website to play the game Overflow. Even though this game requires creative thinking at the higher levels, it keeps my mind working for when I do go back to studying. The point of this game is to build a straw in between the open ends before the soda overflows out of an open end. The trick is sometimes blocks of ice and boulders block you from building your straw so you have to blow them up before you can proceed. Stephanie F

<http://aolsvc.aol.com/games/teens/index.adp>

This is a website completely filled with a bunch of games to play. Whenever I am bored and want to take a break from homework I can go and play any kind of game you can think of. It is very relaxing and stress free! Melissa L.

is a site with a very entertaining game on shockwave format. It is not for everybody and should but it is good for a laugh. Alfonso G

<http://www.rpgamer.com>

This one's been a favorite of mine for years. Formerly square.net (until legal trouble came along from Squaresoft), RPGamer provides decent coverage of Role-Playing Games for home video game consoles and PCs, including some that don't make it to these shores. One of my many geek-out sites. Kevin M

<http://quiz.ravenblack.net/blood.pl?bite=Rex>

I actually just started playing this game. Basically it's kind of a chain letter in a version of a game. You try to get people to get your friends to visit the sight and they try to get their friends to visit the sight and your level in the game is based on how many people you get to visit. You'll have to go there for more of a description. Rex C

The Phobia List <http://phobialist.com>

This is just kind of a fun site without any real useful purpose. I don't remember how I found this site, I think a friend sent it to me, but I love it. You can impress your friends with your great knowledge of all the phobias of the world (and there are quite a few, believe me). Plus, there are lots of medically related terms also (and since we're all BMD majors...), whether they're actually real medical terms or not, I couldn't say. I'll leave you now with my personal favorite: Hippopotomonstrosesquippedaliophobia--> a fear of long words. ;-) Ashley G

<http://www.partypics.com/>

website that has all the pictures from all the parties and dances that my sorority has. Jessi S

www.rotten.com

Rotten.com is a web site composed mainly of pictures. Almost all of the pictures have to do with death, someone's physical pain, or someone's stupidity. For example, on last week's postings, there were before, during, and after pictures of a woman driving through what seemed like a puddle in the middle of the road. Obviously, the woman did not take heed to the rule "never drive through water when you can't see the road." This "puddle" swallowed her car whole! I like this web site because it shows images that I would probably never see in my life on earth. Although I am a bit squeamish, the gory images on the web site are so addictive. Serena B

<http://www.webshots.com/homepage.html>

Webshots is a website where I download different photos for my wallpaper on my desktops of my computer. Pictures range from art to animals to places to travel. This website turns a dull-looking desktop to a more interesting one. Audrey C

MOVIES

Crosswalk.com <http://www.crosswalk.com/>

This is probably one of my favorite websites because it has so many different topics to explore. I mainly use it because it has great movie reviews. If you're ever concerned about the ratings or content of movies, this site gives you information about the content and plot without giving away the movie. It also has many other points of interest, such as music, entertainment, news, and concerts. Ashley G

www.moviefone.com

<http://www.theforce.net>

The biggest non-official site for general Star Wars news. I used to visit the forums right before this year's release, but now it's kinda dull because fans are just speculating and debating about what's going to happen in the last one (*ahem* third one). If you're (really really) bored, some threads in the forum can be entertaining,...but their Star Wars news coverage is why I visit it a couple of times a month. If I could not read the obituary of an extra who had little screen time in one of these movies, what would I do? Kevin M

MUSIC

<http://backseatmemories.tripod.com/index.html>

www.BET.com

BET is another way for me to find out the latest music in hip-hop and R&B. This site also features what's going on in the news as the black community as a whole. I mostly go to this website to find out about the nearest concerts dates and latest contests. Darnesha L

www.cdnow.com

You're like me, you buy CDs because of one or two songs but end up hating the rest of the CD. On this website, you can try CDs before you buy them. Cori M

I like cdnow because it has the most updated new releases of cds. It gives information about the cds, prices, and release dates. This is where I go to shop for the latest new music. With it's website search engine, it makes it easier to find the right cd without all of the hassle. Jonathan F

Steve Taylor: On the Fritz

A page featuring news and lyrics of Steve Taylor, my personal favorite singer/songwriter/producer. Steve Taylor was known as "the bad boy of Christian Rock" during the '80s and early '90s (although I find that name to contradict itself). He now writes and produces for other bands. His musical styles vary, but I find his lyrics to be much more open than many others, especially many from the Contemporary Christian genre of music. Many people confuse Steve with Steven Tyler (the frontman of Aerosmith) or the two other Steve Taylors in the music industry. Kevin M

www.kazaa.com

This is a web site that I use in my spare time. Music, videos, documents, and even software can be downloaded from this web site for free. This has to be my favorite web page of all. I love music so anytime I want to burn a cd or download some songs I can just go here and have them in a couple of minutes. You can find and download just about any song you can think of. I have a wide range of musical taste but like most people I can't remember the exact titles or performers and at this web site you don't need to know all of that. You can just type in what you know about the song and it can help narrow down what you are trying to find. Mena A

This website has been really beneficial to me over the past couple of years. I was Editor in Chief of my high school newspaper and this website was a great method of obtaining the latest national news to include in our newspapers. I find that this website is addicting because I still use it all of the time to find out what is going on in the world. It is a great method of finding information about current events because the Associated Press is the largest press organization in the world. It contains the latest information on any topic in the news that you could think of. I have found this website a great method of becoming a better-informed citizen. Matthew H

I like to go to this website to shop for the older women in my life. This is very helpful because I don't normally have time to go shopping in between going to school, going to work, and studying. Best auction house on the Internet. It is fun to bid and see what people put up. Great place to find things for less.

Mannon K

I guess this is my favorite website because it's actually the only one I ever go to. I only get on the computer about once a month to check my email, so I've really never thought about having a favorite website, especially not five favorites. However, Ebay has anything you could imagine. I have bought several nice things off Ebay and every now and then when I am looking to buy something I usually check Ebay first. For example: I like to go spearfishing. I went to the dive shop to buy a new speargun and it was 200 and something dollars, so I looked it up on Ebay and managed to win the bid for a mere 91 bucks. Josh S

I have used Ebay for many years to buy and sell all sorts of items. Ebay provides the greatest opportunity to find what you are looking for at a reasonable price. I have made thousands of dollars selling old playing cards and video games on Ebay and saved just as much on other auctions. Rex C

I get to look at a lot of pretty things. My mom bought my dishes from ebay. I can compare my dishes to others I like.

www.battleshiprugby.com

This web page is exactly what it says -- Battleship Rugby. For those of you who don't know, Mobile has a rugby club. Rugby is an excellent sport and why this web site doesn't explain the rules of rugby it does explain Battleship. In fact, we are the only team in the Deep South Union to have a National Championship, and we have two of them! Our first in 1992 and second in 2001. There are many pictures of games and our annual luau on this URL. There is also a schedule of when are games are played, which reminds me, we have a tournament every year at the battleship. It is on the 10th and 11th of November and this year there are about 60 teams scheduled to be there. See, we play all over the country and even travel to Europe, Australia, and Africa on occasion. In fact, there is a developmental side (team) from Fiji coming to our tournament next week. Well, I hope to see some of you at the Battleship for the 24th annual tournament, it is going to be lots of fun. Josh S

I use mapquest.com all the time because I am not good at finding directions. Anytime I go somewhere that I am unsure of the location I pull up mapquest and print out the directions. This page has saved me time, gas and energy on numerous occasions. Leigh S

Anytime that I have to travel somewhere that I am not too familiar with I go to this website. It gives me accurate directions and distances so that I do not get lost. The only thing that I do not like about it, is when it estimates you time it tells you much longer than it normally is. Nevertheless, it is very helpful. Melissa L.

I have also used this site when mapping out a trip or vacation. It is a very helpful site because you only have to type in a departure address and an arrival address and it will give you a map. It even lists the estimated time of arrival (ETA). So, next time you go out of town visit this web page and see if it makes your trip go a little smoother. Josh S

The Mapquest website at <http://www.mapquest.com> is a great tool for any traveler. I enjoy travelling to different places and experiencing what each city has to offer. Whenever I plan to take a road trip, Mapquest.com is the first place I visit. You can get information on the city that you are going to visit as well as easy-to-follow driving directions. I have used driving directions from this website numerous times, and they have never failed me. ## WEATHER

NOAA Weather www.noaa.gov

This is a weather site that I enjoy because it a very technical site that is usually used by the media to issue warnings to the public. The amount of radar and 3-D image capabilities of this site are remarkable. I refer to this site daily for up to date weather information. Jeanette S

The Weather Channel Online www.weather.com

The Weather Channel Online is a great asset to the community. This website allows the opportunity for twenty-four hour a day monitoring of weather situations. It was especially useful to me during Tropical Storm Isidore. The Weather Channel Online allowed me to get updated information that helped me in making decisions about my activities during the storm. As citizens in a costal community, this website is especially useful to us as it allows one to view the latest radar and predictions for storms. The Weather Channel Online is a great way for citizens to stay informed on the latest weather information without having to wait for a newscast. Matthew H

My life revolves around the weather and without knowing what it going to be like I would go crazy. If I didn't check the weather all the time I would wear long sleeves when its 90 degrees outside and short sleeves when its 40 degrees. Plus I always like to know if it's going to rain or not. I check the weather constantly hoping they will say it's going to snow. Danielle T

I like this site because I don't want to wear short sleeves and it be freezing. Also, I don't want to be caught in the rain without my umbrella. Crystal G

This is another site I have gone to before, like I said, I hardly ever get on the computer except to check my email and it doesn't have a website. On the other hand, www.weather.com gives me some really good info about the weather wherever I need to know about the weather. I love to travel and TV isn't always sufficient enough to provide weather information for my destinations. So, if you ever need to know the forecast just visit this page. Josh S

I choose this site because it offers the latest weather reports across the country, it helps alot due to the funny weather that we are always experiencing in Mobile. Apryle W

Weather <http://www.weatherbug.com>

This is a very useful website. When I went here I downloaded Weatherbug. It is a little program that gives you all of the information about the weather in your area.
