The USA National Alumni Association Freshman Leadership Scholarships are awarded to outstanding entering freshmen at USA. Academics, activities, and leadership are considered in awarding the scholarships. The four (4) $2,500 one-year (non-renewable) scholarships are tuition-fee waivers and will be awarded for the fall semester 2010. Candidates must have a minimum of a 23 ACT/SAT Score and a 3.0 cumulative grade point in order to be considered for the scholarships. Semester disbursement is based upon the individual being enrolled as a full-time student at USA, actively participating in University activities and maintaining a 3.0 cumulative GPA. If the student does not meet these standards, he or she will be requested to appear before the Alumni Scholarship Selection Committee. Only completed applications will be reviewed by the Alumni Scholarship Selection Committee. Recipient will be notified by mail in mid April.
