

Principle Ph.D. Curriculum
(60 semester hours minimum)
2010-2011

Instructional Core (24 hrs.)

EPY 602 (OR)	Advanced Theories of Learning
ISD 614	Human Cognition for IDD
ISD 612	Alternate Instructional Models
ISD 620	Research in Instructional Technology
ISD 622	Advanced Instructional Design
ISD 640	Needs Assessment
ISD 651	Learning Theory and Technology
ISD 653	Developing Online Instruction
ISD 695	Doctoral Internship

Research (21 hrs.)

IDE 620	Quantitative Methods I
IDE 621	Quantitative Methods II
IDE 630 (OR)	Advanced Research Design
IDE 631	Qualitative Research
IDE 635	Adv. Measurement & Evaluation
ISD 623	Advanced Research Design for IDD
IDE 710	Research Seminar, Year 1
IDE 711	Research Seminar, Year 2*

* (One semester hour; must be repeated for 3 semesters)

Supporting Coursework

Minimum 6 semester hours normally taken after formally qualifying for the Ph.D. program. Courses must be approved by the student's committee.

Research/Dissertation Hours

Minimum 9 semester hours - No more than 9 Research/Dissertation hours count toward the semester hours requirement.

M.S. transcripts will be reviewed to determine if courses are sufficient for this program. Additional courses may be required. Foundational core comprehensive examination is required before taking courses in the Advanced Ph.D. curriculum.