

Dumas Wesley Community Center, Strategic Communication Inter

Background:

The mission of the Dumas Wesley Community Center is to educate, empower and enrich the local community through collaborative programs of Christian service that: provide for immediate human needs, strengthen family life, develop leadership and encourage responsibility.

It is a neighborhood based non-profit organization located in the Crichton community. The neighborhood is one of the most ethnically and racially diverse populations in Mobile with an average family income of $10,000 per year. The population served by Dumas Wesley is approximately 69% low-income and 95% minority. Individuals receive services such as: after-school care, tutoring, food pantry, day programs for senior citizens, transitional housing, transportation for senior citizens and neighborhood outreach.

Description:

Interns would assist with:

- Event planning
- Website content
- Social media
- Volunteer database maintenance
- Bi-monthly newsletters

They may be asked to undertake special projects as needed.

Interns can earn $200-400 per term based on performance. Although Dumas Wesley can work with the students' needs and schedule, they will need to work 16 – 19 hours per week.

Requirements:

- Ability to multi-task and work independently
- Knowledgeable in emerging web-based technologies and social media
- Ability to work well with others
- Strong written and verbal skills