

Mobile County Public School System Television Network, Broadcast Journalism Internships

Description:

The intern is part of the Mobile County Public School System's Office of Communication Television Network. The MCPSS TV Network is responsible for the full score of creative and productive activities, including producing and airing, production management, live production and post production of all programming for the Mobile County Public School System

Requirements:

- Have a strong work ethic and positive attitude
- Be 18 years or older
- Have a working knowledge of television production
- Have transportation
- Have ability to work independently, learn quickly, remain focused and practice punctuality
- Strong oral and written communication skills

Responsibilities:

- Shooting and editing videos for the MCPSS TV Network
- Reviewing, writing and editing video scripts
- Uploading videos to the internet
- Researching topics and themes
- Maintaining studio, sets and lighting
- Operating camera for studio and remote productions
- Other tasks as needed