THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH ALABAMA COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING invites applications for the position of Systems Engineering Program Chair at the rank of Associate or Full Professor (tenure track), depending upon qualifications, beginning August 15, 2015. Responsibilities include management of the Systems Engineering program, teaching courses at the undergraduate or beginning graduate level and research in their field. The successful candidate will also be involved in advising undergraduate students, service and outreach activities, and actively participating in continuing efforts to improve the college's educational mission. Minimum Qualifications: PhD in Engineering or a closely related discipline and relevant systems engineering experience. Preferred Qualifications: Relevant industrial or military experience and a record of successful teaching at the college level. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. The College has ABET accredited undergraduate programs in chemical, civil, computer, electrical and mechanical engineering as well as master's degree programs in each department. The College of Engineering has a relatively new doctoral program in Systems Engineering and also partners with the College of Medicine to offer a Biomedical Engineering track in the Basic Medical Sciences doctoral program.
