UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH ALABAMA
CHIEF, DIVISION OF CARDIOLOGY

The Department of Medicine at the University Of South Alabama College Of Medicine in Mobile, Alabama, is searching for a Chief of the Division of Cardiology. The Division supervises adult cardiology clinical services in 2 teaching hospitals, provides specialty outpatient care, trains cardiology fellows, teaches medical students and internal medical residents, and conducts clinical research activities. The successful candidate will supervise existing activities and be responsible for expanding the clinical expertise and research capabilities of the Division. It is critical that the Division Chief work closely with hospital and departmental leadership in managing the cardiovascular service line including the achievement of quality measures and innovation in the delivery of care. Candidates should have the rank of Associate Professor or Professor, be board certified in Cardiology, and have administrative experience in the clinical arena, and a record of accomplishment and continuing interest in research. Interested applicants should submit a curriculum vitae, a list of at least three references to: Errol D. Crook, M.D., Abraham A. Mitchell Professor and Chair, Department of Internal Medicine, Mastin 400 A, 2451 Fillingim Street, Mobile, AL 36617 (Phone 251.471.7900) or email ecrook@health.southalabama.edu.

The University of South Alabama is an Equal Opportunity Employer – Minorities/Females/Veterans/Disabled.