

University of South Alabama Baldwin County

Community Reservations

Usage of the buildings at the University of South Alabama Baldwin County (USABC) falls into five categories. First and foremost, the buildings are for the academic courses offered by USA. Second, rooms/buildings may be used by request of an individual associated with USA for conferences, meetings, departmental retreats, etc. Third, USABC co-sponsors events for students which are also open to the community, i.e., concerts, lectures, plays, etc. Fourth, USABC co-sponsors events for the community which enhance the visibility and reputation of USA. Lastly, USABC provides limited office and or meeting space for community groups or groups affiliated with departments at the University.