

USA Center for Healthy Communities
Center of Excellence
Student Training for Academic Reinforcement in the Sciences (STARS)

Intern - End of Semester Self-Evaluation

Topic	Meets Expectations
	Rarely	Sometimes	Usually	Frequently
Self Awareness and Autonomy This includes identification of personal strength and weaknesses, acceptance of personal responsibility for learning; executing assignments on a timely basis; carrying out assignments in a responsible, timely manner
Application of Professional Values and Practice This category includes application of an appropriate ethical code of conduct and respect for values of others in the workplace
Representation of Site This includes willingness and ability to follow site guidelines and goals of the site
Professional Behavior This includes cooperating with site personnel and functioning as a team member; demonstrating problem-solving ability; establishing and maintaining appropriate interpersonal and professional

Please provide a brief summary for each question.

1. What are the strengths of this organization? Would you recommend it for future Shadowing interns?

2. What are the weaknesses of this organization?

3. What did your site supervisor do that was very useful for you in helping you achieve your goals?

4. What would you have liked for your site supervisor to have done to help you achieve your goals?

5. Please comment generally on the internship organization and the site supervisor.

6. How has the internship experience impacted your attitudes or feelings about your career path?

Summary of strengths and areas for growth:

Please return this form to USA Center for Healthy Communities, Center of Excellence, Diana Falcon, Pipeline Program Coordinator, fax (251) 414-8009.

If you have any questions call Diana Falcon, Pipeline Program Coordinator, (251) 470-1687 or 414-8001.