

Example of How the Map Test Might Look

(The test you actually take will have different numbers in different places)

Any circled number indicates only a city, not the country, island, or region in which the city is located

