

Download and Unzip the Cisco VPN Client Installation Files

1. Open your internet browser.
2. Go to address: <http://www.usouthal.edu/csc/vpn/>
3. Select vpnclient4.0.3.D.exe
4. Select Open.
5. From the WinZip Self-Extractor window change the path in "unzip to folder" to c:\temp and Select Unzip.

6. Answer the WinZip Self-Extractor message * file(s) unzipped successfully
7. by Selecting OK.
8. From the WinZip Self-Extractor window select Close.

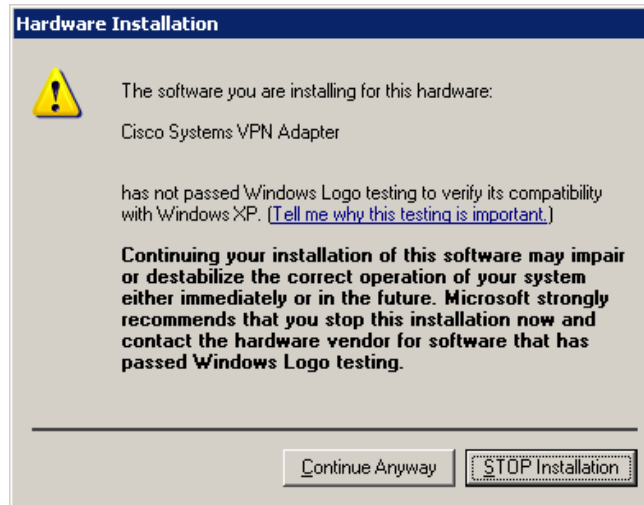

Install the Cisco VPN Client

1. From the folder c:\temp double click on the Setup.exe
2. Proceed with the installation, accepting the license agreement and all default settings and reboot your PC.

For Windows 2000 the process is similar to the following:

1. From the Welcome to Cisco Systems VPN Client screen select next.
2. From the Software License Agreement screen accept the license agreement and select next.
3. From the Destination Folder window select next.
4. From the Ready to Install the Application window select next.

please note under Windows XP you may receive the following message

You must press Continue Anyway to complete the VPN client install

5. From the Client has been successfully Installed window select Finish.
6. Select yes to restart your system or no to restart later.

Configure a VPN connection.

1. From the start menu select Start, Programs, Cisco Systems VPN Client, VPN Client.
2. From the VPN Client select New.
3. From the Create New VPN Connection Entry window enter the following values for each line:
Connection Entry: USA
Description: (you may leave this blank or enter a description of your choice)
Host: remotenet.usouthal.edu

4. On the Authentication Tab, for Group Authentication enter the following values for each line:
Name: (the group name supplied to you by the network administrator or your supervisor)
Password: (the group password supplied to you by the network administrator or your supervisor)
Confirm Password: (re-enter the group password supplied to you by the network administrator or your supervisor)
5. Press save to keep the configuration.

Establish a VPN connection.

1. From the VPN Client click on connect.
2. You will be prompted to provide:
Username: (the username will be supplied to you by the network administrator or your supervisor and is unique to only you)
Password: (your password will be supplied to you by the network administrator or your supervisor)
3. Press ok.

The Group Name and Group Password for Tracdat are:

TracDat
Flamingo$9