

0. Print your name:

---

1. How do we know that the constructions by math origami and those by straightedge and compass work ?

2. What can be done with math origami but not with straightedge and compass ?

3. What technique lets you use your height and the length of shadows to compute the height of a tall tree or pole ?