

Abstract

Matrices over Finite Fields XI: Summary of the Achievements

We summarize the results obtained last semester: We describe induced representations and their endomorphism algebras, discuss special subgroups of the general linear group and the Bruhat decomposition, classify the conjugacy classes in the general linear group, determine the irreducible representations of the Borel subgroup, and define the Jacquet module of a representation.