

Abstract

Modular Categories and Applications II

I will present evidence for the two main conjectures on the classification of modular categories as described in the colloquium talk. This will include both conceptual and empirical evidence, and leads to some techniques and progress towards the verification of these conjectures.