

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH ALABAMA

BY THE NUMBERS

Degrees Awarded: 62,300
Students Enrolled: 14,279
Patients Treated Annually: 250,000
Employees: 6,000
Annual Economic Impact: $2 billion
Annual Payroll: $288 million, largest in Mobile area

The University of South Alabama makes a lasting impact on the region through:

- An educated workforce
- Economic stimulation and jobs creation
- Health care contributions
- Research and partnerships
- Enhanced culture and quality of life

STUDENTS AND PROGRAMS

USA has educated:

- 1,942 physicians, one-third of the area's doctors
- 15,700 teachers and school administrators, including 85 percent of Mobile's public school teachers
- 10,100 business and accounting professionals
- 7,400 nurses
- 5,900 engineering and computer science professionals

USA COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS

- Allied Health Professions
- Arts and Sciences
- Mitchell College of Business
- Computer and Information Sciences
- Continuing Education and Special Programs
- Education
- Engineering
- Medicine
- Nursing
- Pharmacy with Auburn University

The University of South Alabama is among the fastest-growing universities in Alabama.

USA enrollment growth from 1998-2008: 23 percent

Graduate enrollment growth: 49 percent

USA Baldwin County Campus enrollment growth: 56 percent

USA's average ACT scores eclipse state and national averages:

Alabama: 20.3
National: 21.2
USA: 21.7

www.southalabama.edu

RESEARCH AND OUTREACH

- Total contracts and grants to USA have increased by one-third in the last five years
- Contracts and grants for fiscal year 2008: $44 million
- Federal direct appropriations since 1998: $155 million
- USA research and outreach touch a wide range of important issues including:
 - Health care
 - K-12 education
 - Coastal weather, environment, and seafood industry
 - Economic issues, polling and real estate
 - Gulf Coast history and culture
 - Energy and alternative fuels
 - Technology
 - Art, cultural and athletic activities

USA Mitchell Cancer Institute

USA's Mitchell Cancer Institute helps Gulf Coast citizens lead longer, healthier lives through the prevention, diagnosis, and advanced treatment of cancer through innovative medical research. For an appointment or more information, call 1-800-330-8538 or visit www.usamci.com

HEALTH CARE

- USA's hospitals and physicians treat more than 250,000 patients each year.
- More babies are born every year at USA Children's & Women's Hospital than any other area hospital.
- USA offers many unique medical services including the area's only neonatal intensive care unit, only Level I trauma center, and the Mitchell Cancer Institute.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

- $2 billion area economic impact annually
- Employs 6,000
- Annual payroll of $288 million, the largest payroll in Mobile and Baldwin counties
- Generates more than $5 for every $1 provided by the state
- USA 2008-09 Budget (revenues): $784 million
State funding: $122 million

USA Technology and Research Park

The USA Technology and Research Park fosters unique partnerships with industry that have created more than 500 local, private-sector jobs in computer science, information technology and biomedicine. For more information, call (251) 460-6384 or visit: www.southalabama.edu/usatrp