

DailyAccess Expands Operations

Mobile, AL, February 11, 2009 – DailyAccess Corporation, a leading national provider of retirement plan services, today announced it will relocate its corporate offices to new and expanded headquarters facilities effective February 17, 2009. Its new headquarters will be located in the University of South Alabama's Research and Technology Park, putting it in a position to utilize the university's many resources.

"Our continued growth in sales and market share necessitated our expansion, and our new corporate headquarters will provide additional, meaningful benefits to our associates, clients, and financial advisor partners," said Tommy Thomasson, President and CEO of DailyAccess. "The move will allow us to enhance and grow our operational capability for the long term while providing tangible benefits for our most valuable assets, our employees."

The company's new address will be 307 University Boulevard North, Building 3, Suite 1500, Mobile, AL 36688. DailyAccess's phone numbers and e-mail addresses will remain the same.

About DailyAccess Corporation

DailyAccess Corporation is an innovative retirement plan services company that provides solutions-based technologies integrated with personalized client service. DailyAccess helps plan sponsors and financial advisors deliver retirement plan services to the participants they serve. For more information on our ASPPA-certified recordkeeping, administration and consulting services, please visit www.dailyaccess.com or call 888-535-4322.

#

#

#