

The Student Conservation Association

Conservation Internships

Changing Lives Through Service to Nature

The Student Conservation Association

Conservation Internships

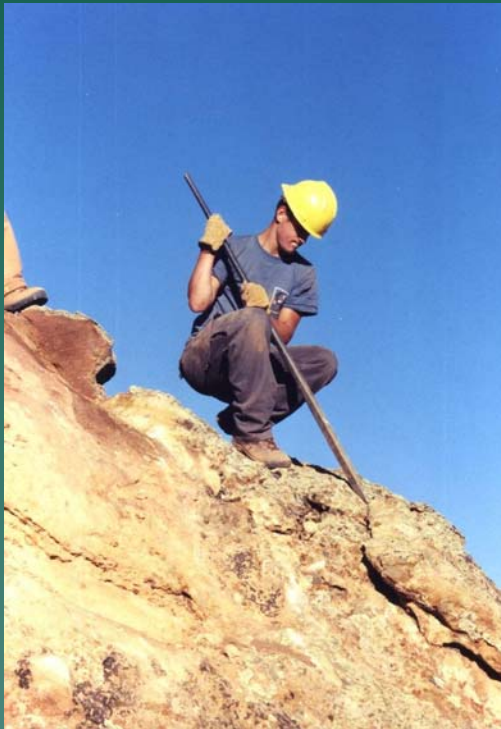

The SCA is a non-profit organization which has been placing volunteers and interns in National Parks, Forests, Refuges, and other cultural and natural resource management areas for over 45 years

The Student Conservation Association

Conservation Internships

SCA is the nation's oldest and largest provider of conservation service

The Student Conservation Association

Conservation Internships

Internships are located in all 50 states, and cover over 50 different disciplines

They range from 12 weeks to 12 months

The Student Conservation Association

Conservation Internships

SCA internships are EXPENSE PAID:

- Travel Grant Provided
- Housing Provided
- Weekly Stipend for Food
- Free or Low-Cost Accident and Health Insurance

PLUS- Americorps Education Award up to $4,725

The Student Conservation Association

Conservation Internships

Interns live and serve in America's picturesque parks and cultural sites, working under the guidance of professional resource managers.

The Student Conservation Association

Conservation Internships

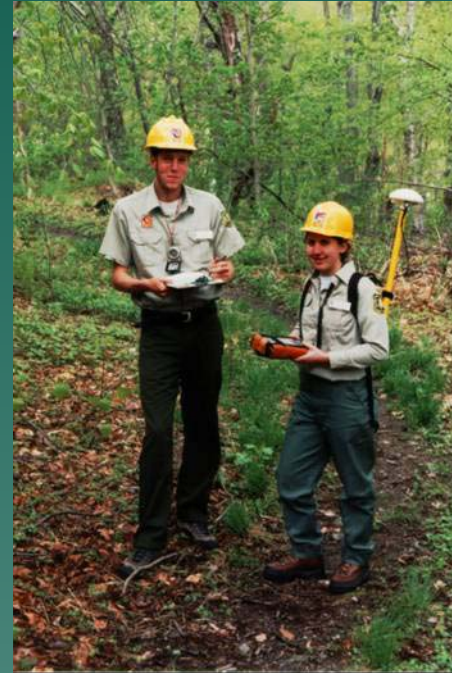

If you're considering a career in conservation,
SCA is the ultimate starting point.

The Student Conservation Association

Conservation Internships

If you need an internship to earn academic credit, SCA lets you choose from virtually every imaginable position.

The Student Conservation Association

Conservation Internships

If you're simply seeking new adventures, SCA has much to offer with exciting, hands-on positions

The Student Conservation Association

Conservation Internships

The SCA

Service

Experience

Adventure

Location

Of Approval

The Student Conservation Association

Conservation Internships

To apply, learn more, or view currently available positions, check out our website:

www.theSCA.org

Are you ready to join the next generation of conservation leaders?

