EDUCATION

- Doctor of Philosophy, Communication Sciences & Disorders 2019
University of South Alabama, Mobile, AL
Dissertation Title: The Effects of Linguistic and Non-Linguistic Masking on Auditory Event-Related Potentials Related to Semantic Processing: An Aging Study
Mentor: Tara Davis, Ph.D.
- Doctor of Audiology 2019
University of South Alabama, Mobile, AL
- Bachelor of Arts in English Literature 2011
Minor concentrations in History and Religion
Huntingdon College, Montgomery, AL

CERTIFICATION/LICENSURE

- Certificate of Clinical Competence in Audiology 2019 – Current
American Speech-Language Hearing Association
(Member ID – 14129824)
- State License in Audiology 2021 – Current
Alabama Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology
(License Number 1305a)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Assistant Professor, University of South Alabama, Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology 2021 – Current
- Assistant Professor, Illinois State University, Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders 2018 – 2021
- Research Assistant – Auditory Event-Related Potentials Laboratory 2011 – 2018
University of South Alabama
Lab Director: Tara Davis, Ph.D.
- Research Assistant – Neuropsychology Laboratory Fall 2015
University of South Alabama
Lab Director: Benjamin Hill, Ph.D.

STUDENT RESEARCH MENTORSHIP

Doctoral Dissertations and Pre-dissertations

Stalley, S. (proposed Spring 2025). Investigating grammatical productivity in children with language disorders. Dissertation. Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology. Role: Committee Member

Money-Nolan, E. (defended Fall 2025). The dual task interaction between vestibular function and cognitive processing using the P300 event-related potential. Dissertation. Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology. Role: Co-Chair

Bunnell, E. (defended Spring 2025). A comparison of functional movement and balance function between reserve officers' training CORPs cadets, yoga practitioners, and healthy non-to lightly-active peers. Dissertation. Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology. Role: Committee Member

Greene, A. (defended Fall 2024). The influence of personality traits on balance perception and vestibular function in young and middle-aged adults. Dissertation. Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology. Role: Committee member

Greene, A. (defended Fall 2023). A comparison of vestibular function in young adult musicians and non-musician peers. Pre-Dissertation. Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology. Role: Committee Member

Au.D. Thesis

Endom, P. (proposed Summer 2026). The relationship between working memory, fluid intelligence, and dual task performance in healthy young adults. Role: Committee Member

Greene, A. (defended Spring 2023). Factors affecting the use of vestibular/balance screening measures among audiologists and physical therapists in patients reporting dizziness. Role: Committee Member

Master's Thesis

Ton Loy, A. (defended Fall 2026). An evaluation of self-reported suggestibility on the Morel Emotional Numbness Test in a college sample. Department of Psychology. Role: Committee Member

Undergraduate Honors' Thesis

Clarke, M. (defended Spring 2026). Comparing hearing screening approaches in people with aphasia: self-report, clinician-led, and automated methods. Role: Committee Member

Kilgore, A. (defended Spring 2025). Influence of hearing loss on self-reported hearing ability and listening-related fatigue in persons with aphasia. Role: Committee Member

Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship

Fields, S. (Summer 2026). Self-perceived hearing ability and listening-related fatigue across adulthood. Role: Faculty Mentor

Morrison, M. (Summer 2025). Self perceived hearing and listening-related fatigue in patients with and without aphasia. Role: Faculty Mentor

Sykes, A., (Summer 2024). Dual-task cost to posture during a speech-in-noise listening task. Role: Co-mentor

Mejia, G. (Summer 2023). Effects of personality type on cochlear implant use, quality of life, and perceived auditory experience. Role: Faculty Mentor
