

JagNationTV Internship Job Description:

JagNationTV is a university-run website for live and edited content covering all sports at South Alabama. There is no experience required, though students must be willing to learn quickly on the job. Students will learn to work cameras, create graphics and work audio for live and edited content. Student will also learn how to edit stories, highlights, etc for the website. Hours vary depending on home games for various sports, but there will be no problem meeting required hours for internship credit.

Intern Supervisor: Pat Greenwood/Director of Multimedia – 251-447-1265