Full-time Arts and Sciences faculty are required to teach at least one course in-person (face-to-face) per regular term, unless their appointment letter specifies otherwise or they are on leave. Only courses taught in the following modalities will be considered in-person for the purposes of meeting this requirement:

1. Campus Traditional

2. Campus Hybrid

3. Multi-Access (when an on-campus meeting option for students is included).