

Graduate Scholarships and Paper Awards

Deadline: Friday, April 24, 2020

Scholarship

Applicants must register in JagSpot (see below)

One USA Foundation Graduate Sociology Scholarship, in the amount of $2,000, will be awarded for the 2019-2020 academic year.

To be eligible, you must:

- Register in JagSpot and submit a brief essay on your career goals.
- Have a minimum 3.0 GPA.
- Enroll in the Fall 2020 semester to receive the award. Incoming graduate students for 2020-21 who have been accepted by the Graduate School are eligible.

Paper Awards

Applicants are not required to register in JagSpot

The Department may present one Sociology Graduate Student Paper Award, in the amount of $100, to the best graduate student paper in sociology submitted for competition and judged by a faculty committee

The Gerontology Program may also present the Stovall Endowed Student Research Award, in the amount of $200, for an outstanding graduate paper from any discipline (must be a thesis, thesis-level project, or dissertation) on a topic related to intergenerational relationships or multi-generational issues/research topics or methods/policies/programs.

Eligibility requirements:

- The student must be the sole author of the paper.
- The paper must substantially cover a topic from a sociological perspective. Examples include reviews or syntheses of the discipline's literature, original observations, or research reports. Papers previously submitted for class credit are welcome!

Scholarship applications must be submitted to Jag$POT, the University's Scholarship Program Opportunity Tracker at https://southalabama.academicworks.com/users/sign\_in

To be considered, students should sign in using their J-number and e-mail password to complete their application no later than Friday, April 24