

Undergraduate Scholarships and Paper Awards

Deadline: Friday, April 24, 2020

Scholarships

Applicants must register in JagSpot (see below).

Two USA Foundation Sociology Scholarships, two USA Foundation Anthropology Scholarships, and two USA Foundation Social Work Scholarships, each in the amount of up to $750, may be awarded for the 2019 – 2020 academic year. Three USA Foundation Gerontology Scholarships, each in the amount of up to $250, may also be awarded. The Gerontology Scholarships may be combined with the other Foundation Scholarships offered by the department. To be eligible, you must:

- Be a rising junior or senior enrolled at USA, majoring in Sociology, Anthropology, Social Work, or seeking an undergraduate Minor or Certificate in Gerontology. You must enroll in the Fall 2020 semester to receive the award.
- Have a minimum 3.0 GPA.
- Submit an essay on your career goals to JagSpot and request one letter of recommendation from a USA faculty member before the deadline.

Paper Awards

Applicants are not required to register in JagSpot

The Department may also present one Sociology Student Paper Award, one Anthropology Student Paper Award, and one Social Work Student Paper Award, each in the amount of $50. Currently enrolled undergraduates (of any major) should submit papers meeting the following criteria:

- The student must be the sole author of the paper.
- The paper must substantially cover a topic from a sociological or anthropological or social work perspective. Examples include reviews or syntheses of the discipline's literature, original observations, or research reports. Papers previously submitted for class credit are welcome!

Scholarship applications must be submitted to JagSPOT, the University's Scholarship Program Opportunity Tracker at https://southalabama.academicworks.com/users/sign\_in

To be considered, students should sign in using their J-number and e-mail password and ensure that their application is complete no later than Friday, April 24, 2020