

DEPARTMENT CHAIR OF RADIOLOGIC SCIENCES

The University of South Alabama invites nominations and applications for the position of Chair of the Department of Radiologic Sciences at the rank of Senior Instructor. Minimum qualifications include a Master's or Doctorate degree in a related field with an entry level degree in Radiologic Sciences/Radiation Therapy and certification through the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists. Successful candidates should show evidence of commitment to excellence in teaching, clinical education, and scholarship. The Chair is expected to provide strategic vision and leadership to the Department. While not required, post-primary certifications, evidence of scholarly research, and experience in accreditation is desirable. The Radiologic Sciences Department offers a B.S. degree in Radiologic Science and provides an opportunity to study these special modalities: Computed Tomography, Magnetic Resonance Imaging, Vascular Radiography, Mammography, Ultrasound, Radiation Therapy, and Radiology Administration.

Located in Mobile near the Mobile Bay National Estuary and the Alabama Gulf coast with its beautiful white-sand beaches, the University of South Alabama is a public, doctoral-level institution enrolling more than 14,000 students in eight colleges and schools. Founded in 1963, it seeks to establish itself as a premier academic institution in the southeastern United States. With its Colleges of Medicine, Nursing, and Allied Health Professions and two teaching hospitals, it also serves as a health services center for the region. Mobile is the center of a growing, two-county, metropolitan area (~600,000 residents) with a diverse economy.

Review of applications will begin on October 2, 2023 and will continue until the position is filled. Applications should include a cover letter of interest, CV, and the names of three references. The application material should be sent via regular mail or email to: Dr. Nancy Rice, Professor and Chair, Department of Biomedical Sciences, Pat Capps Covey College of Allied Health Professions, 5721 USA Drive, North, HAHN 4021, University of South Alabama, Mobile, AL 36688-0002, Phone: 251-445-9265; nrice@southalabama.edu.
