The University of South Alabama, Mitchell College of Business (MCOB), invites applications for a nine-month, tenure-track position in Accounting beginning August 15, 2024. The department is seeking an ambitious scholar for the position of assistant professor who is academically qualified to teach undergraduate and graduate accounting courses. The ideal candidate should have strong foundations in taxation of partnerships and corporations and data analytics in accounting, and be capable of making significant contributions in these fields. In addition, a commitment to excellent teaching is required. The candidate is expected to develop a teaching portfolio that may include financial accounting, managerial accounting, taxation, information systems, and data analytics in accounting. Candidates should have earned a doctorate degree in Accounting from an AACSB accredited institution. MCOB’s accounting program is AACSB accredited.

Applicants should submit (i) a letter of interest; (ii) curriculum vita; (iii) sample of publications (or job market paper); (iv) teaching and research statements; (iv) three letters of recommendation; (v) if available, copies of teaching evaluations or other evidence of teaching effectiveness electronically to Carol Vann, Search Committee Chair, at the email address: cvann@southalabama.edu. Candidates can view our posting through higheredjobs.com and the American Accounting Association website. The application deadline is November 30th, 2023.

Official transcripts from all institutions of higher learning from which a degree was received and three original signed letters of recommendation will be required prior to approval of an offer of employment.
