

University of South Alabama
Department of Physical Therapy
Faculty Position

THE DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL THERAPY in the Pat Capps Covey College of Allied Health at the University of South Alabama invites applications for a 12-month, full-time, tenure-track or non-tenure track appointment at the rank of Assistant or Associate effective August 1, 2022.

RESPONSIBILITIES of the position include teaching graduate courses in physical therapy in the candidate's area of expertise; conducting, publishing, and presenting research; providing student advising and mentorship; contributing to student recruitment; collaborating with faculty; participating in curriculum development; and providing service to the Department, University, and community. The successful candidate must display effective teaching practices, provide experiential student learning opportunities, and engage in program-related student and community engagement.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS include eligibility for physical therapy licensure in Alabama. Minimum requirement of DPT with preference given for academic doctoral degree (PhD, EdD, DSc, etc.) or DPT with specialty certification. Applicants should have skills and/or experience in teaching, research, and service. Rank and track will be commensurate with the applicant's credentials and experience in demonstrating a consistent and ongoing record of scholarship and experience with securing external research funding. Applicants that are ABD will be considered for Assistant Professor. At the rank of Associate Professor, candidates must provide evidence of an established research agenda (e.g. peer reviewed publications, grants, etc.) and a history of effective teaching.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS include a minimum of 2 years of didactic teaching experience in higher education. Teaching and/or clinical expertise in orthotics/prosthetics, functional anatomy, foundational clinical skills, neuromuscular rehabilitation, exercise physiology, kinesiology, and/or clinical education is preferred.

THE DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL THERAPY at USA, with a 47-year history, offers an accredited well-established and highly respected entry-level DPT program. The academic program is developed, managed, and implemented by the Department's nine full-time faculty members. The curriculum is delivered over eight continuous semesters using innovative teaching strategies such as patient simulation and team-based learning that foster student engagement and clinical reasoning. Team teaching is utilized to promote delivery by faculty with content expertise. The Department is housed in the Health Sciences building and includes research labs with a Vicon motion analysis system, BTE Primus, TecnoBody Walker-View treadmill system, and a Carefusion portable metabolic system. Innovative teaching methods are encouraged and supported through the University's Human-Patient Simulation Program, Innovation in Learning Center and the TeamUSA Quality Enhancement Plan.
