

Assistant Professor in Latin American History

The Department of History at the University of South Alabama invites applications for a full-time (9 month), tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Latin American History to begin August 15, 2018. The successful candidate will be responsible for introductory and advanced courses in Latin American history, including courses at the M.A. level, as well as for U.S. History survey courses. Specialists in Caribbean History and/or the African diaspora are especially encouraged to apply. ABD candidates will be considered, but an earned Ph.D. in Latin American History or a closely related field is required at the time of appointment. To receive full consideration, all application materials must be received by October 31, 2017.

Send a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, a chapter or article-length writing sample, and three letters of recommendation sent directly from the referees or appropriate placement office to Dr. Harry Miller, Chair: Latin American Search Committee, University of South Alabama, 5991 USA Drive North, Room 344, Mobile, Alabama 36688-0002.

The University of South Alabama is an EO/AA employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression), religion, age, genetic information, disability, or protected veteran status. Members of underrepresented groups are encouraged to apply.