

Instructor: Sociology, Anthropology and Social Work

The University of South Alabama's Department of Sociology, Anthropology and Social Work invites applications for a non-tenure-track, full-time (9-month), one-year-only Instructor position in Social Work, beginning on August 15, 2022. A Master's Degree in Social Work is required, and licensure in Social Work and teaching experience are preferred.

The search committee seeks a candidate who can teach general Social Work courses, including Generalist Practice II, Social Welfare Policy, Social Work in Mental Health and Child Welfare.

To apply, send electronically a cover letter, CV, and list of three references to the Search Committee Chairperson, Ms. Laurie French Haas (ACSW, LICSW, PIP) at the following email address: lhaas@southalabama.edu.

Candidates selected for a campus interview will arrange to have official graduate and undergraduate transcripts sent directly by the registrars of all colleges and universities attended to Ms. Haas at the following address:
