Sociology, Anthropology and Social Work Instructor

The University of South Alabama's Department of Sociology, Anthropology and Social Work invites applications for a non-tenure-track, full-time (9-month), one-year-only Instructor position in Sociology, beginning on August 15, 2022. We seek a candidate who can teach general Sociology courses, including Introductory Sociology, Social Problems, and other courses at the 100 and 200 levels.

Required: a Master's degree in Sociology or a Master's degree in a related field with 18 graduate hours in Sociology.

Preference will be given to candidates who possess strong evidence of teaching effectiveness.

Application Instructions

Interested applicants should submit electronically a cover letter, curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and the names and contact information of three references to Dr. Hosik Min, hmin@southalabama.edu.

Candidates selected for a campus interview will arrange to have official graduate and undergraduate transcripts sent directly by the registrars of all colleges and universities attended to Dr. Min at the following address:

Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Social Work
