Art & Art History Tenure-Track Position

The University of South Alabama Department of Art & Art History invites applications for a full-time (9-month), tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Animation, starting on August 15, 2020. Minimum qualifications: MFA in animation or a related field and fluency in written and spoken English. Responsibilities include teaching all levels of undergraduate animation courses and appropriate courses in the graduate program. Other duties include academic advising, active involvement in departmental and university governance, professional development, and public service.

The University of South Alabama’s Animation Concentration focuses on a holistic approach to animation. Software used in the Animation Concentration includes Adobe Creative Suite, Autodesk Entertainment Creation, Dragonframe, and Toon Boom Harmony.

To apply, send the following materials by email to the Search Committee Chairperson, Mr. Karl Jahnke at kjahnke@southalabama.edu: letter of interest, vita, statement of teaching philosophy, and examples of recent work and examples of work by students if available (disposable digital media or website). Please arrange to have three signed letters of recommendation on letter head emailed to Professor Jahnke. In addition, please have all official graduate and undergraduate transcripts sent directly by the Registrars of all colleges attended to Professor Jahnke at the following mailing address:

Department of Art & Art History
VAB 172
University of South Alabama
Mobile, AL 36688-0002

Review of applications will begin January 21, 2020, and continue until the position is filled.

The University of South Alabama is an EO/AA employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression), religion, age, genetic information, disability, or protected veteran status.