Living on campus allows you to stay close and stay connected.

USA Housing offers 33 residence hall options that will create a unique college experience. It’s one of the best ways to get involved, make friends and stay on track to finish your degree.

Incoming international students can choose to live on campus by completing the housing application. The application can be found in the USAHousing portal. More information: SouthAlabama.edu/departments/housing/residencypolicy.html.

Hungry? At South, there are more than a dozen dining options across campus to feed the Jaguar in you. Stop by the Fresh Food Company, “The Caf,” for all-you-can-eat service. For on-the-go meals, check out our food court in the Student Center!

Other campus dining options include:

- Starbucks
- Einstein Bros. Bagels
- Greens to Go and P.O.D. Market (Provisions On Demand)
- Chick-fil-A and Pizza Hut
- Delta Deli
- Moe’s Southwest Grill
- Panda Express
Getting involved on campus is part of the American college experience. Choices include cultural organizations, student government, religious and political organizations, and special interest clubs. Foster and build relationships, develop skills, and balance your academic career.
ATHLETICS

The University of South Alabama fields eight men’s and nine women’s athletic programs, competing at the NCAA Division I level. South Alabama is a charter member of the Sun Belt Conference with a multisport history of excellence in competition and in the classroom.
