

FERPA for Parents and Family Members

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act sets forth requirements regarding the privacy of student records and affords students certain rights with respect to their education records.

Do parents have a right to access their student's educational records?

Although parents do not have a right to these records, the university is permitted to share these records with the parents if the student authorizes that access. University of South Alabama utilizes the South Alabama Family Connection to provide and manage that access.

Requesting access to your student's educational records

1. A parent can initiate a request for access to their student's information through the South Alabama Family Connection.
2. FERPA authorization only grants access to information, it does not grant the right to act on the student's behalf.
3. The FERPA authorization will remain valid until rescinded by the student.

Joining the South Alabama Family Connection

The South Alabama Family Connection will allow you to connect to your student by sending them a request to access their records. On the day after the request is approved, you will have access to view their authorized information. The data will be updated nightly.

2. Enter their University of South Alabama email address (@jagmail.southalabama.edu). Please note that families cannot request a connection to students who have recently applied but have not been admitted. Connections are only possible after a student becomes active and is issued a University email account.
3. Parents and family members can request access to:
  - Class Schedule/Enrollment Information
  - Grade(s) Information
  - Financial Aid Information
  - Account Balance
  - Holds on Account

Having trouble connecting to your student?

1. Cancel the request by clicking on the graduation cap. Click "Go to my connections," click on the connection you'd like to cancel, scroll to the bottom, then click "Cancel this connection."
2. Start a new request with the student's correct email address.
3. The student will receive an email and decide whether or not to approve your request.

When students accept their parent or family member's request, they must accept the connection and then must approve the FERPA requests. Parents and family members can either request everything or choose à la carte what they would like to see. Similarly, the student can either grant access to everything or pick and choose what they would like their supporters to have access to. Students can revoke access at any time by logging into the South Alabama Family Connection with their University of South Alabama username and password.
