

2019-2020 RCR Workshop Series Schedule

USA Faculty Club
6348 Fincher Rd.
Mobile, AL 36688

- 1. Research Misconduct  Wednesday, October 9, 2019 (2:30-3:30)
Julio Turrens, Ph.D.
Professor Emeritus of Biomedical Sciences
- 2. Management of Data  Wednesday, November 13, 2019 (2:30-3:30)
Jonathan G. Scammell, Ph.D.
Assistant Dean for Admissions, Professor of Comparative Medicine and Pharmacology
- 3. Conflict of Interest  Tuesday, November 19, 2019 (3:30-4:30)
Lynne Chronister
Vice President, Research and Economic Development
- 4. International Security Threat Wednesday, January 15, 2020 (2:30-3:30)
David Furman
Director, Information Security Risk and Compliance
- 5. Management of Data  Tuesday, February 4, 2020 (3:30-4:30)
Jonathan G. Scammell, Ph.D.
Assistant Dean for Admissions, Professor of Comparative Medicine and Pharmacology
- 6. Rigor and Reproducibility Wednesday, February 12, 2020 (2:30-3:30)
Mary I. Townsley, Ph.D.
Senior Associate Dean, College of Medicine
- 7. Mentor/Mentee Wednesday, March 4, 2020 (2:30-3:30)
William Reichert, Ph.D.
Assistant Vice President, Research Development and Learning
- 8. Research Misconduct  Tuesday, March 24, 2020 (3:30-4:30)
Julio Turrens, Ph.D.
Professor Emeritus of Biomedical Sciences
- 9. Intellectual Property and Copyright Wednesday, April 8, 2020 (2:30-3:30)
Andrew E. Byrd, Ph.D.
Director, Office of Commercialization and Industry Collaboration
Reggie Taylor, J.D.
Associate Director, Intellectual Property Management, Registered Patent Agent
- 10. Conflict of Interest  Wednesday, April 22, 2020 (2:30-3:30)
Lynne Chronister
Vice President, Research and Economic Development

The topics marked with an asterisk * above are designated as required classroom instruction, which is designed to further enhance online training. For these designated topics, two sessions will be scheduled throughout the 2019-2020 training series to ensure faculty have an opportunity to adhere to the revised RCR training requirement.