Deed of Gift

I/We, _____, the undersigned, as agent, owner, author, administrator, or heirs, do hereby state that I/we are the owner(s) of the below-described materials. As owner(s), I/we do hereby give, transfer, and assign to The Doy Leale McCall Rare Book and Manuscript Library (The Library), University of South Alabama, except as noted below, all right, title, and interest in the papers and other historical material described below. I/We also convey all intellectual property rights I/we may own, including copyright, in these materials. I/We understand that these papers and historical materials will be made available to the public without restriction, except as noted below, for research and educational purposes, including but not limited to publication. I/We distinctly understand that my/our purpose and intention is to vest absolute ownership of the property, including copyright, in The Library.

Any part of the property that is not retained by The Library should be:

- ☐ Returned to Donor(s) or his/her/their estate
☐ Disposed of by The Library
☐ Other (explain): _____

Because the mission of The McCall Library is to make archival materials available to the public for scholarship and research, most of The Library's collections are not subject to access restrictions. On occasion, however, special circumstances, such as a concern about privacy or the presence of personal or sensitive information within the collection, may warrant a restriction. If you wish such an access restriction, please indicate below the applicable terms. An access restriction does not in any way affect intellectual property rights, including copyright. Keep in mind that McCall Library policy does not permit permanent or indefinite restrictions. Therefore, after consultation with staff, if desired, a termination date must be designated below

Restrictions or Exceptions:

- ☐ Material may be used only with written permission of the donor(s)
☐ Other (explain): _____

Termination date for restriction: _____

The Library will honor donor-imposed restrictions to the extent permitted by law.

Credit Line desired by Donor:

Description of Materials: _____

Donor's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

This last known address will be made available to researchers requesting a waiver of any restrictions imposed above. If access is granted, the donor must provide The Library with a letter stating that access has been granted and what that level of access is. The McCall Library neither grants nor denies permission to publish to its users. The donor, however, by providing permission, understands that permitting photocopying, publication, and/or exhibition of these materials may result in further dissemination of these materials with or without either the donor's or The McCall Library's permission. I/We hereby hold The McCall Library harmless and indemnify The Library and all of its directors, officers, employees, and agents from and against any cost, harm, injury, damage or other liability arising from the photocopying, publication, and/or exhibition of these restricted materials. Except for the purposes set forth in this form, the access restriction(s) remain in full force and effect.
