Guide to the Honor Flight South Alabama Records

Descriptive Summary:
Title: Honor Flight South Alabama Records, 2008-2013
Creator: Honor Flight South Alabama
Quantity: 9.25 linear feet
Abstract: Records of Honor Flight South Alabama, a service organization based in Spanish Fort, Alabama that organized trips to visit the national World War II monument in Washington, DC for veterans of that conflict residing in South Alabama.
Accession: 702-2018

Biographical Note:
The Honor Flight South Alabama (HFSA) organization was led by Director Barry Lee Booth, DMD, Margaret Coley, Col. John New, Col. Pat Downing, Cdr. Pete Rhiem. HFSA sponsored trips to Washington DC for veterans of World War II. These trips afforded veterans the opportunity to visit the United States’ National Monuments dedicated to their military service. Veterans interested in participating completed an application process which included written description of their military service experience. Veterans who travelled on an Honor Flight were joined by Guardians or volunteers responsible for assisting them. Guardians submitted applications to participate and paid a set fee for their travel.

The organization ran nine flights between 2008 and 2013 and sponsored various local commemorations and events honoring veterans of the armed services. This organization raised funds privately and also received community grants and public funding to carry out its mission.

Scope and Content:
Contains administrative records, correspondence, digital image files, financial records, children’s artwork, and video. The bulk of the collection is made up of applications submitted by veterans and guardians (individuals who accompanied veterans on the trip). These forms contain standardized information about participants and were used for planning purposes. The complete flight packets contain written descriptions of each veteran’s service, and some contain facsimiles of supporting documents. The correspondence series contains letters and artwork from local children made for veterans as well as letters from participants thanking the HFSA staff.

Processing notes:

This collection has been arranged and described at the file level by Christopher Stanford, Michael Campbell, and Deborah Gurt. There was no discernable original order in the collection when received. Records were organized into 4 series by function.

I. Program documents encompass forms used by the organization to gather information from participants outside the organization, including veterans and guardians.

II. Organizational (internal) documents include correspondence and logistical records resulting from the function of the organization – making plans for the flights, and fundraising efforts. Also included here are financial records representing the very informal nature of the organization. Donations that were received were photocopied as the method of tracking. We decided to preserve these because in many cases they were accompanied by personal notes.

III. Correspondence includes letters for Dr. Booth and other leaders of the organization. It also includes “Mail Call” items – letters and artwork from local children to veterans expressing their thanks.

IV. Audiovisual Material contains digital photographs and video taken at Honor Flight events.

This collection contained many duplicates which were removed during processing. In addition, simple forms gathering such information as T-shirt sizes were discarded. Two published works were removed from the collection and cataloged separately.

Provenance: Gift of Dr. Barry Lee Booth
